"Exporting Excellence"

Seniors' Missions Trip To Mexico

The purpose of our trip is to provide ministry exposure, assistance and encouragement. The team from our church will gain first-hand knowledge of the ministry of the Barnabas Churches in Mexico for which they have so faithfully prayed and financially supported. In addition, we will be a part of an evangelism outreach ministry to the poor of San Luis, Mexico. It is also our intention to be an encouragement to the people and pastors in the various Barnabas churches by visiting them and praying with them. We will go to church services and participate in them through music, testimonies and preaching.

- Who: Seniors (the older group) and others interested
- Dates: Tentatively November 3-10 (depending on flights)
- Cost: $500 – 600
- Travel: The group will travel by plane
- Lodging: We'll stay in the US in a motel and make day trips into Mexico.
- Fundraising: We will not have a big fundraising push for this activity.
- Food: We are planning on eating with a church in Mexico each night for dinner.

If you are interested, please contact Bill Cummins at 354-4321 so that we can make the necessary arrangements. We will then have an orientation meeting for those who would like to know more.
